

PHYSICIANS DECEIVED.

Skeptical at First Regarding the Value of the New Pile Cure.

Special train leaves 10 a. m., returned that the remarkable relief afforded by the Pyramid Pile Cure was because they supposed it to contain cocaine, opium or similar drugs, but such is not the case. A recent careful analysis of the remedy shows it to be absolutely free from cocaine, opium or in fact any poisonous, injurious drug whatever. It was found to contain only healing antiseptics and soothing oils.

For this reason the Pyramid Pile Cure is the only pile cure extensively used and recommended by physicians because it is so safe, so prompt in the relief afforded from a single application, and so far as known the only positive cure for piles except a surgical operation.

About one person in every four suffers from some form of piles. The most common and annoying is itching piles, indicated by warmth, slight moisture and intense uncontrolable itching in the affected parts. This form of the disease as well as protruding, blind and bleeding piles, readily yields to the curative action of the Pyramid.

The usual treatment has been some simple salve or ointment which sometimes gave temporary relief, but nothing like a permanent cure could be expected from such superficial remedies.

The Pyramid Pile Cure gives quicker relief than any of these and the relief and cure are permanent.

The Pyramid is in suppository form and the first application gives instant relief from the pain, itching and soreness and the continued use for a short time removes the tumors and the small parasites which cause the itching and discomfort.

The remedy is applied at night, is very convenient and causes no detention from daily occupation.

The Pyramid has become the best known, safest and most extensively sold of any pile cure before the public.

All druggists sell full sized treatments at 50 cents and a little book on cause and cure of piles will be mailed free to those who send in writing to Pyramid Co., Marshall, Mich.

If suffering from any form of piles ask your druggist for Pyramid Pile Cure and try it tonight.

HUNTINGTON SAYS REPORT IS TRUE

Huntington, president of the Southern Pacific, said at New York last night that the Carson and Colorado railroad had been acquired by the Southern Pacific, but that no fixed policy for the future operation of the road had been decided upon. The Carson and Colorado is 293 miles long and runs between Mound House, Nev., and Keeler, California, with a junction of seven miles to Candelaria, Nev. The road, it is said, will be extended south to Mojave, and north to some point on the Central Pacific.

Villard Will Not Build.

Denial is made of the report from Tacoma that Henry Villard was to build a new railroad from Port Valdes to the Yukon to develop the resources of the Copper River valley. Mr. Villard said last night that this was the first he had heard of such an intention on his part. The road referred to is believed to be the one proposed in the report of Captain Abercrombie, U. S. A., which may be built by the United States government, to provide an all American route to the Yukon.

Third Avenue Troubles.

The Third Avenue Railroad company, New York, whose directors have for weeks been negotiating with financiers with a view to relieving the road of its monetary difficulties, is to pass quite out of the hands of its present possessors. The creditors of the road are to become its owners. In their hands the resignations of every one of the directors of the road have been virtually placed. The places of the present directors will be filled by representatives of the creditors, among whom is Russell Sage.

Absorbs Consolidated.

The long pending negotiations for the purchase of the Consolidated Traction company by the Union Traction company were closed at Chicago today. Charles T. Yerkes has been for some days in final consultation with the New York interests which control the Union Traction company. The details were settled satisfactorily and the final arrangements made for the sale of the property. Except for the suburban railroad which will be acquired later, this gives the Union Traction company control of the main and west ends.

RAILROAD NOTES.

A new coat of paint is to adorn the old Oregon Short Line passenger station. G. H. Olmstead has been appointed trainmaster of the Montana division of the Oregon Short Line.

Last night's Rio Grande Western train from the East was delayed a couple of hours on account of a break on the engine.

The Rock Island has issued a big edition of circulars setting forth the advantages of travel by its new schedule, east-and-west through car.

For the third week of February the Rio Grande Western's gross earnings reached $84,000, an increase of $20,500. For the three weeks of February the gross earnings reached $230,000, an increase of $50,000.

The Rio Grande Western train for Brigham, Provo and Sanpete valley, leaving at 5:35 a. m., will, commencing Sunday, Feb. 25, leave Salt Lake at 8:20 a. m. There will be no change in the return schedule.

On Tuesday next the G. A. R. annual encampment will occur at Ogden, and for this occasion the Oregon Short Line will run a one-dollar special out of here at 8:30 o'clock in the morning and returning leaving Ogden at 11 o'clock at night.

WALCOTT DEFEATS JOE CHOYNSKI.

Game Californian Was Not Equal to the Negro.

CONTEST OF SEVEN ROUNDS.

Time and Again Choynski Was Sent to the Floor, Receiving Punishment that Was Simply Awful.

A New York dispatch of Feb. 23, says that Joe Walcott, the Barbadoes negro, received the decision over Joe Choynski of California in the seventh round of what was to have been a twenty-five-round bout before the Broadway Athletic club tonight. Choynski was practically outclassed, and received very severe punishment. Walcott weighed in at 147 pounds, and Choynski at 163. The betting made Choynski a prohibitive favorite, odds of 100 to 30 being freely laid on his chances, but after the first round, when Choynski went to the floor five times, the odds shifted, and at the beginning of the second round Walcott was a 2 to 1 favorite.

All through the fight Walcott was on the aggressive. He rushed Choynski, sending him right to the stomach, and left to the head at will. In the first round Choynski was floored five times. The first time he measured his length on the canvas floor he was hit with a right under the jaw. Another hard right in the vicinity of the solar plexus put him down a second, a right across on the jaw was the cause of his third fall, and a left on the jaw put him down for the fourth time.

Walcott was very nimble on his feet, and danced around while Choynski was regaining his feet. Choynski came up very groggy after his fourth knock down, only to go down again from a right on the point of the chin, which sent him flat on his stomach on the floor of the ring. It looked as if Choynski was out for good, but three seconds after he went down the bell rang, and he was helped to his corner.

Walcott forced the fighting in the second, sending his right to the body and landed a hard left on the jaw. Choynski replied with a stinging right on the head, which staggered Walcott to the ropes. This round was fairly evenly fought, but Choynski, with his superior reach and height, failed to land another good blow, as Walcott was always able to dodge every lead or return made by the big Californian.

They rushed to a clinch in the third, after which Walcott jabbed his left to the face and swung the same hand hard to the body. Choynski tried left and right for the head, but Walcott got inside of them and put both hands to the body, and in the clinch which followed sent his right hard over the kidneys.

In the fourth Choynski managed to land a couple of hard right-handers on the body, but the negro sent back lefts and rights on the body and face, doing particular damage with his left on the side of the head. The fifth round was all in Walcott's favor, and in the sixth he cut Choynski's right eye with a left-hand swing.

The Californian was groggy when he came up for the seventh round, and after he received a right on the wind and two lefts on the face he staggered in an evidently helpless manner. Walcott then landed left and right on the jaw, forcing Choynski to the floor, and when the latter regained his feet Walcott rushed him, but was stopped by referee Johnny White, who declared Walcott the winner. Walcott said afterwards that he felt that another blow would have put Choynski out.

ASKED FOR REINSTATEMENT.

Application of the University of California.

A New York dispatch says: At the annual meeting of the Inter-collegiate Athletic association last night the University of California made application for reinstatement. The committee recommended to the annual meeting of the inter-collegiate association to be held at the Fifth Avenue Hotel today that the university be re-elected to membership. California has already arranged athletic meets with Princeton, and Pennsylvania and is negotiating for a meet with Cornell.

DECLARED A DRAW.

Result of the Daly-Parker Mill at Denver.

A dispatch from Denver, Colo., of Feb. 23, says: Five thousand persons saw "Wilmington Jack" Daly and Kid Parker of this city fight a ten-round draw before the Colorado Athletic association here tonight. It was the fiercest ring battle ever witnessed in Denver and was made up of a series of hot mixes and rapid fighting after the third round. Daly appeared to be Parker's superior in scientific work and avoided the latter's rushes by clever side-stepping. It was only when Parker would bore in and mix things up that he had any of the best of it, and then Daly would usually give him as good as he sent.

In addition to being a clever sparrer and ring general, Daly seemed to relish Parker's style and when they came together both would rain blows on each other's body and head. The fight was entirely devoid of knock-downs. Parker's right eye was partially closed and his right ear torn, while Daly suffered a deep cut on the right cheek. Straight Queensberry rules governed the fight and the agreement was that if both were on their feet at the end of the tenth round the fight would be declared a draw. Billy Woods officiated as referee. It is said that Parker and Daly will meet again in two or three weeks.

In the preliminaries, Young Corbett of Denver made a chopping block of Kid Kelly of Montana, and with Kelly decidedly groggy and his face covered with blood, Referee Woods stopped the bout and gave the decision to Corbett.

SPORTING NOTES.

A match game of basket ball between the L. D. S. College and the Y. M. C. A. will be played tonight.

In yesterday's handball games at the Y. M. C. A. gymnasium Tarpey and Smith defeated McMillan and Evans two sets out of three with scores of 21-19, 21-17 and 19-21. They then defeated Rogers and Shaw with a score of 21-20 and were, in turn, defeated by Mark and Evans by a score of 21-20.

Jerry McCarthy, the Butte lad who "put it on" Chas. Williams of Eureka a few days since, arrived in town last night accompanied by Patsy Sullivan and Young Thomas.

Choynski's defeat at the hands of Joe Walcott last night proved a great surprise to those who are acquainted with the plucky fighter.

Educational

UNIVERSITY.

President Kingsbury went to Fillmore Thursday night to attend the dedication exercises of the new public school of that place. The subject of a lecture given by the doctor was the "Education of the Public Schools to the State University." He returned this morning.

The grand social and ball given by the first year students Wednesday night was a success in every sense. Room 28 was tastefully decorated with the University and the class colors. The affair was ably managed by Messrs. Blinnett, Orlob, Lillywhite and Meyer, while the table presided at the booth, where many refreshments were served. The dancing was kept up until long after midnight. One special feature rendered by the orchestra was the new "cakewalk," a piece of music composed for the occasion by Mr. Harold Orlob.

Prof. Stewart has organized a new class in special methods, composed only of college students. They are discussing at present the system of education worked out by Dr. Dewey of the University of Chicago and which is being practiced at the Chicago University Laboratory school. This system is especially interesting as it emphasizes the art of manual training, and domestic science, thus bringing out and developing the domestic impulses within the child.

Prof. Stewart has also begun his course in experimental psychology, which will be conducted in the Laboratory building where new apparatus has already been placed.

Work is being pushed on the new University buildings. The foundations are all in and some of the walls are up to the second floor. The stone work on the Normal building is also about completed.

The Historical Society of the University met Friday and an interesting hour was spent in discussing subjects pertaining to the Revolutionary War. Dr. Arthur Adams the president, delivered an excellent address on "How a Study History" and Mr. Claude Benson spoke on "How to Study the History of Utah." The society has already a number of historical pictures, documents, and relics, which will soon adorn the regular class room.

BRANCH NORMAL.

Ogden City, Feb. 21.—Students are now preparing for Washington's birthday. In the morning the Students' society will carry out a program appropriate to the occasion; athletic sports following a game of baseball will take up the afternoon and a ball will be given in the evening.

The young ladies' glee club sang in chapel Wednesday morning.

A new table, made by a manual training student has been placed in the library.

The manual training department is now furnished with a forge.

A party is to be given by the young ladies in the near future.

BRIGHAM YOUNG ACADEMY.

February 21, missionary students are still pouring in.

Brother D. E. Harris of Juarez, Mex., spoke to the students, Thursday.

Music seems to have a great attraction for many young people. Professor Leach has the training of about one hundred and fifty voices.

The Beaver branch seems to have great advantages. It has a very fine collection for theatrical purposes.

Washington's birthday will be observed with the usual exercises for that day. The class of 1904 will give a ball for the occasion.

Tuesday morning Professor Brimhall returned from Beaver, where he has been giving a course of lectures. He reports that he had a very successful time.

JEWISH BURYING GROUND.

Council Committee Considers the Petition of the Hebrews.

Action Postponed for One Week—Municipal Not Machines Won't Go—More Land to be Planted in Cemetery.

Messrs. Morris Levy and George M. Lewis appeared before the Council committee on cemetery last evening and supported the petition of the Hebrew congregation Montefiore, asking that a half-acre of ground in the city cemetery be set apart as a burying place for the Hebrews. The majority of the members present favored immediate action, but Cottrell pleaded for more time in order that he might visit the cemetery and view the spot desired. The matter accordingly went over for one week.

The same committee decided to recommend to the Council that the city station be authorized to plat the piece of land known as cemetery park, so that it can be used for burial purposes. Sexton Carter will be required to do the platting, etc., without employing additional help, and must remove a barn, now standing on a portion of the ground, at a cost not to exceed $500. The petition of a number of saloon-keepers asking that the city grant them a license to operate musical slot machines was considered by the license committee. City Attorney Stephens, who was present, informed the committee that he had examined the machines and the conclusion he came to was that they were gambling devices pure and simple. If they were otherwise, he very much doubted whether the saloonkeepers would have asked the city for a license. The city could not legally license gambling in any form. The committee decided to deny the petition. Owing to the absence of Hartenstein and Fernstrom, the police committee postponed for another week consideration of the removal of Police Officer Ed C. Davies.
